

INDIVIDUAL MEMBERSHIP – $225

Those individuals who are working for a local or regional economic development organization, or who are engaged full-time in economic development in the State of Indiana. These members rights include, but are not limited to, voting, the right to vote and the right to hold office. Employees of Indiana Regional Plan Commissions and Indiana regional workforce boards may be considered for Individual Membership.

CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP

1 member	$350
2-3 members	$675	11-15 members	$3,375
4-6 members	$1,350	Over 15	board decision
7-10 members	$2,250

Those employees of private sector firms involved in economic development in the state of Indiana may qualify to be Corporate Members. Corporate Members shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of membership including, but not limited to voting, the right to vote and the right to hold office (the "Voting Member"). All Corporate Memberships will remain with the corporation when a corporate employee who is Member leaves that firm. Examples of the types of Corporate Member firms include Accounting Firms, Construction Companies, Consultants, Financial Institutions, Law Firms, Real Estate Brokerage and Development Companies, Site Consultants, and Utilities.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATION MEMBERSHIP (ONE VOTING MEMBER) – $350

Professional and trade associations that work in economic development within the state of Indiana. The Professional Association will hold the membership with the designation of one representative. All employees and/or volunteer leaders of the Professional Association Member shall be entitled to membership rates for all Association conferences, but only the designee will maintain all of the rights and privileges of membership, such the right to vote and the right to hold office.

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION MEMBERS – $350

Institutions of higher education, within the State of Indiana, may qualify as Educational Institution Members. The Institution will hold the membership with the designation of one representative. All faculty and staff of the Institution shall be entitled to membership rates for all Association conferences, while only the designee will maintain the rights and privileges of membership, such as the right to vote and the right to hold office. The Educational Institution holding the membership may change its designee at any time subject to approval by the Board of Directors.

LIFE MEMBERS – $25

Those individuals who have retired but maintain an interest in the economic development of the State of Indiana. Life Members shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of membership except the right to vote and hold office.

STUDENT MEMBERS – $25

Those individuals enrolled as full-time students, who have an interest in economic development in the State of Indiana. Student Members shall be eligible for scholarships made available by the Association provided that all Individual Members shall be given first consideration. Student Members shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of membership except the right to vote or hold office.

ASSOCIATE MEMBERS – $50

Those individuals who are engaged on a part-time or voluntary basis in economic development. Associate Members shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of membership except the right to vote or hold office.

FEDERAL AND STATE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AGENCY MEMBERS – $225

Individuals who work for federal and state economic development agencies. This classification shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of membership except the right to vote and hold office.

Other special governmental packages include:

	Amount	# of Registrations per Conference
Governmental Platinum.....	$12,500.....	25
Governmental Gold	$10,000.....	15
Governmental Silver.....	$ 7,500.....	10
Governmental Bronze	$ 5,000.....	5

Promoting and improving the quality of economic development throughout the State of Indiana.

150 West Market Street, Suite 040
 Indianapolis, Indiana 46204
 ph 317-454-7013 • fax 317-634-5964
www.ieda.org

Membership Benefits

There are many benefits to being a part of the Indiana Economic Development Association (IEDA). IEDA is Indiana's premiere resource for obtaining up-to-date information and best practices concerning economic development.

The IEDA provides services and programs to its members including:

- Legislative services
- Timely legislative updates during session
- Scholarship opportunities for economic development related training and certification
- Valuable networking opportunities with Indiana's economic development leaders
- Membership rates for quarterly association conferences
- Updates on economic development program and initiatives
- Website
- Newsletter
- Access to membership

About IEDA

The Indiana Economic Development Association, Inc. was formed in 1968 by 16 professional industrial developers to provide continuity to a statewide economic development effort. IEDA was incorporated in 1982 as a statewide not-for-profit economic development organization.

Since its inception, IEDA has focused its efforts on two objectives:

1. To utilize the knowledge and resources of the association to make economic development activities in the state more effective; and
2. To cooperate and coordinate with all state and local organizations engaged in promoting the economic competitiveness of Indiana.

Application (please print)

Name: _____ Date: _____

Referred by: _____

Additional names (if applying for corporate membership) _____

Title: _____

Organization: _____

Address: _____

City, State, Zip: _____

Phone: _____ Fax: _____

Email: _____ Website: _____

Membership Categories (Please refer to descriptions on reverse side):

Individual Membership

Corporate Membership

___ 1 member

___ 2-3 members

___ 4-6 members

___ 7-10 members

___ 11-15 members

___ Over 15 members

Professional Association Membership

Educational Institution Membership

Life Membership

Student Membership

Associate Membership

Federal & State Economic Development Agency Membership

Payment:

IEDA dues are prorated. After board approval you will receive an invoice for membership dues.

Please send application to the IEDA office:

IEDA, 150 West Market, Suite 040, Indianapolis, IN 46204

Fax: 317-634-5964

Email: jillewing@ieda.org

YES! Send me information on becoming an IEDA annual sponsor.